With 1 USB-C, and US Prong

- Charge a MacBook Air 2020 at Full Speed
- Powered by Gallium Nitride (GaN) Technology
- 3X Smaller than Traditional Silicon-Based Chargers
- Quick Charging Port with High Power Efficiency
- Industry-Leading Over-Current, Over-Voltage, Over-Temperature and Short-Circuit Protection
- Intelligent Power Allocation Based on what Device is Connected

Built-in GaN (Gallium Nitride) Technology

The UltimatePower Mini 30W GaN uses the latest Gallium Nitride (GaN) technology so our charger can be smaller and more efficient. The GaN technology Chip allows for hundreds or even thousands of transistors in a very small space. This lets us design a charger that is more efficient, smaller and more powerful.

Small Yet Powerfull

Our UltimatePower Mini 30W is 70% smaller than the silicon based charger such as the Apple 30W charger.

Protect Your Charger & Devices

Our UltimatePower Mini 30W is a highly efficient charger that is equipped with industry-leading over-current, over-voltage, over-temperature, and short-circuit protection for your charger and devices. The charger is also equipped with Intelligent Power Allocation so it adjusts its output based on the device that is connected.

Charge Everything

The UltimatePower Mini 30W GaN is capable of charging smart phones, tablets, and even the new M1 MacBook Air at 30 Watts. This charger supports PD 3.0, QC3.0, QC2.0, PPS, AFC, and Apple 2.4A charging protocols.
